

TOM the TANKIE

I knew him, but did not know him.

So many knew him better.

Some looked up for guidance,

While others stood side by side

From here we will never know why

But we do know he gave and gave and gave

And so shall we until we die.

World leaders and history books will

Not record his life,

But for our family, we will record it,

Remember it, live with it, and never forget.

The AT&V family will long for his companionship

Each time we hear a hammer ring out.

Tom Reeves, I knew him,

But so many knew him better.

Hammer long and loud Tom.
